HAPPY ST. PATRICK'S DAY!

We are quickly approaching the end of the third nine weeks. It is also the season for parades, shamrocks and all things green. Here are some facts about St. Patrick.

While he is the patron saint of Ireland, Patrick isn't really a Saint with a capital S. He was never officially canonized by Rome, and he was not the first evangelist to Ireland. Palladius has that honor having been sent to Ireland in 431. He isn't Irish, either, having come from Scotland. When he was 41, Patrick traveled to Ireland to share the gospel with the Irish. He was quite successful and made many missionary journeys all over Ireland, until it soon became known as one of Europe's most God-fearing nations.

"And the angel answered and said...Fear not...for I know that you seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead....."
